

I can spell multisyllabic words with close, open, and silent e syllables with 80% accuracy or higher.

I can spell words with the beginning prefixes pro-, per-, en-, dis-, com-, con- followed by an open, closed, silent e, or vowel pair syllables with 80% accuracy or higher.

I can state that soft /c/ sound occurs when followed by e, i, or y.

I can spell words with the soft /c/ sound followed by e, i, or y with 80% accuracy or higher.

I can state that soft /g/ sound occurs when followed by e, i, or y.

I can spell words with the soft /g/ sound followed by e, i, or y with 80% accuracy or higher.

I can state that a closed syllable ends in a consonant and the vowel sound is short.

I can state that an open syllable ends in a vowel and the vowel sound is a long.

I can state that a silent e syllable ends in a silent e and the vowel sound is long.

I can apply the Doubling Rule when adding suffixes to a word with one short vowel followed by one single consonant.

I can apply the Silent e Rule when adding suffixes to a word ending in silent e.

I can apply the Y Rule when adding suffixes to a word ending in the letter y.