

Library Targets - Grade 6

Social Responsibility	Information Literacy	Independent Learning
___ I can use materials, equipment and library facilities respectfully and independently.	___ I can identify the topic, main points and supporting facts in a reading collection.	___ I can select high quality classical and contemporary works on an interest or topic appropriate to my reading level.
	___ I can select and read from texts representing a variety of genres representing America's multicultural experience and international works.
	___ I can distinguish between primary and secondary sources.
	___ I can use table of contents, indexes, guide words, headings, subjects/headings, etc.
	___ I can, with experience, evaluate information considering currency, accuracy, validity, relevance, completeness, bias, intended audience, fact/opinion and purpose.
	___ I can define plagiarism and explain why it is wrong.
	___ I can, with experience, read, listen and view, to analyze and identify important ideas and supporting evidence in an information source, using logic and informed judgment to accept or reject information.
	___ I can notice differences between sources and seek additional sources to resolve questions.
	___ I can determine if evidence supports the conclusion or if more evidence is needed.	